

The countdown has begun to opening night for our production of "Taking Off" on Wednesday 29th October. It is wonderful to again be able to have the Inglewood Photographic Appreciation Group with their annual exhibition on in the foyer during many of our shows. While the exhibition is open daily from 9.30am-4.00pm those of you who are attending "Taking Off" will have the added advantage of being able to view the outstanding photos on display from Saturday 1st November to Saturday 8th November.

Also this month we have a very special afternoon planned on Saturday 18th October. In conjunction with the family of past Life Member Yvonne Brown we will be holding the Yvonne Brown Memorial at TET Cue Theatre – more details later in this newsletter but we hope many of you will come along and join us for an afternoon of remembrance and gratitude.

Our special thanks to the TET Trust who have been very generous in allocating us sufficient funds to construct additional storage facilities at the rear of our property and upgrade the boundary fence. There will also be a facelift for the rather tired looking TET sign on top of the building!

As promised we also have some exciting news with regard to the 2009 calendar for the theatre so read on... enjoy the spring days and we look forward to seeing you at "Taking Off".

YVONNE BROWN MEMORIAL

Saturday 18th October 2008
2.00pm – 4.00pm
TET Cue Theatre,
Matai Street, Inglewood

All Cue Theatre members, friends of the society and general public are invited to attend this memorial service for Life Member, Yvonne Brown. Speakers will include locals Alan Stevenson, Alan Spurdle, Peter Cramer and Gwen James along with the eulogy given by Jane Brown at Yvonne's funeral. In addition there will be a powerpoint display and several family members will be in attendance. A plaque dedicated to the founders of our society will be unveiled and the afternoon will conclude with afternoon tea.

We ask that all those who wish to attend please RSVP to either Alan Stevenson on 7568576 or email backstage@cuetheatre.co.nz so that catering numbers can be confirmed.

This is a wonderful opportunity to honour a valued member of our theatre, to reminisce with friends and family and to honour all our founders for their vision and perseverance over many years. We look forward to seeing you there.

TAKING OFF

By Roger Hall
Directed By David Ertel

This enchanting Roger Hall play tells the stories of four women. All head off on their overseas adventure well into middle-age and with quite different reasons and agendas from the norm (or are they?) It may just prove that getting on the plane is the easy bit – and finding out what is really important in life sometimes surprises us!

A Cue Theatre production from 29th October – 9th November 2008. Evening performances at 8.00pm and weekend matinees at 4.00pm. Please note no performance on Monday 3rd November.

Ticket sales have been brisk with over half the seats already sold. They are available from Inglewood Book Centre, 31 Rata Street, Inglewood – Phone 06 7567032. $20.00 per person or $18.00 per person for pre-paid group bookings of 10+.

Seating plans and further information are available via www.cuetheatre.co.nz.

COMING TO CUE IN 2009

Just to whet your appetite for great theatre we are delighted to announce that in 2009 we will be hosting visiting productions with a difference: In June we present "TALKING HEADS" by Alan Bennett with Maxine Burgham-Page, Sue Golding and Max Golding for a special three show season incorporating three monologues from the "Talking Heads" series.

In October, Peter Meikle and Howick Little Theatre are bringing to Cue "ART" – a play about relationships and what truly constitutes 'art'.
