MAY 2011

What's next?

The Ghost Train has roared through Fal Vale Station for the last time and a Prince has married his sweetheart in Westminster Abbey before an estimated 2 billion viewers. What remains for us to rival the suspense and excitement of these events? Read on, gentle reader ...

THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE INGLEWOOD DRAMATIC SOCIETY WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE TET CUE THEATRE ON THURSDAY 12th MAY COMMENCING AT 7.30 pm

Business: Apologies
Minutes of the previous AGM
Matters Arising
Financial Report (Subscriptions)
President's Report
Election of Officers

There should be no need to point out how important it is for you to attend the AGM. The Society needs the support – or otherwise - of its members. New committee members will bring fresh ideas on how the Society can maintain its standing in the community.

THE TARANAKI ELECTRICITY TRUST

By now you should have noticed the new signage above the veranda at the front of the theatre. Designed by Alan Stevenson at the behest of the Trust, it is the first stage of a revamp of the street frontage which we hope will make a theatrical statement. This has been made possible by the recent grant from the Trust. Other work already done has been an upgrade of the stage working lights so that working bees and rehearsals are more safe and effective. The Trust has been a major supporter of the theatre for over 10 years. Which brings us to...

COMING UP

The election of representatives on the Trust is to be held shortly.
Watch out for this and support the Trust so that it may continue to support us.
