Life Membership Jim Williamson

According to the Cue Theatre history, Jim's first play was "Tartuffe" in 1981. Since then he has appeared in several productions, including "Feathered Fox", "Dinner with Gilbert and Sullivan", "Lend Me A Tenor", "Over the Blue Horizon" and Musical Hall presentations. Often, Jim's sense of humour was to the fore, (those of us who saw him as a "Prehistoric Man" will never forget it and we are left to wonder how the human race survived the "Dark Ages")

Not content with sharing his talent on stage, Jim has taken responsibility as a committee member and was President in 1992, '93, and '94. Indeed, it was during his term of office that the decision was made to re-build Cue Theatre.

Latterly, he has helped as one of Cue's invisible helpers – building sets, working on the sound or lighting desk where care and concentration are so essential.

Throughout his association with Cue, Jim has shown a willingness and unique sense of humour which we will always associate with him. And we are not unmindful of Judy's part in all this – onstage, backstage and front of house – in seems that if you have a Williamson on your side, you get 'two for the price of one'.

We are proud and grateful to have our "Jimmy" Williamson a Life Member of Cue Theatre.
