

Special thanks are extended to:

Peter Cramer, Inglewood High School,
New Plymouth Operatic Society,
Rev, P. Bristowe, and Mrs. Blackburn of "Blackies".

The Inglewood Dramatic Society thanks
all its patrons for their continued support. We hope the future sees the Cue Theatre still being filled by capacity audiences and maintained by a vigorous membership. If you are interested in being involved ring 67/982 or talk to any other member.

We wish everyone a very happy
Christmas and a prosperous and happy 1989.

HABEUS CORPUS

WRITTEN BY ALAN BENNETT

DIRECTED BY DEREK TREEBY

CUE THEATRE

NOVEMBER 26 - DECEMBER 3 1988

Cast - in order of appearance

| | | | |
|-------------------|------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Dr. Wicksteed | David Mead | Stage Manager | John Smith |
| Mrs. Swabb | Ngairé Eldershaw | Set Construction | John Smith |
| Mrs. Wicksteed | Mary Gyde | Set Decor | John Smith |
| Connie Wicksteed | Anna Mundt | | Shirley Smith |
| Dennis Wicksteed | Garry Young | Prompt | Shirley Smith |
| Sir Percy Shorter | Neville Henry | Costumes and Properties | Lydia Groenbaek |
| Lady Rumpers | Amanda Kennedy | Lighting | Stan Long |
| Cannon Throbbing | Keith Lockett | | Richard Martin |
| Felicity Rumpers | Denise Lahood | Sound | Judy Field |
| Mr. Shanks | Alistair Nelson | Publicity | Joan and David Ertel |
| Mr. Purdue | Rod Harmer | Choreography | Jill Hingston |
| | | Stage assistants | Kevin Gyde |
| | | | Dawson Birdsall |
| | | Front of House | Jeanette Morrison and members |

"Put it this way - whatever right or wrong is he whose lust lasts, lasts longest!"