

T.E.T. Cue Theatre proudly presents Vivienne Batys'

Production of

Present from the Past by Richard Everett

The Director – Vivienne Baty

Vivienne comes to Cue Theatre with a wealth of theatrical knowledge. Vivienne is well known to Theatre audiences through-out Taranaki having won awards for her outstanding work on the stages of the Operatic Society, Little Theatre, and the Repertory Society. Last year she won the award for Best Production 'The Woman Who Cooked Her Husband'.

The Cast

Howard Kevin Koch
Frances Christine King
Rachael Cathy Morris
Colin Morris West
David Ian Hoskins

Setting

The action takes place in the living room of a terraced house in the south-west London. The action is continuous. Time – the present.

There is an interval between Acts 1 and 2 –
Coffee and Tea will be served in the foyer.

Production Crew

Prompt Heather Harrison
Lighting Wendy Nash, Derek Treeby, Selina Mackie
Sound Wendy Nash, Derek Treeby, Selina Mackie
Sound Consultant Jerrod Koch
Set Design Vivienne Baty, Laureen Marriner, Vida Henry
Set Construction Tom Blundell, Jon Ertel, Bert Squire, Barry Boekman
Properties Laureen Marriner, Vida Henry
Stage Manager Vida Henry
Make-up Glenys Wilson and helpers
Theme Music Nostalgia by Richard Clayderman

Front of House

Jeanette Morrison and friends of Cue Theatre

Programme

Selbyprint

Thanks To

Small Bros
Professional Image
Eric Allerby
Julian's Electrical
Channel 7 Taranaki
Inglewood Book Centre

Lois Finderup Turning Point
Sacred Heart Girls Hostel
Fred Pullen
Inglewood Genealogy Society
R & P Robertson

If you would like to become involved with T.E.T Cue Theatre, have a chat to our friendly Front of House people or phone: Jeanette Morrison (06) 756-7494 David & Joan Ertel (06)756-7120

