

PRODUCTION

Many and varied talents are required for the production of a play; workers out of the to a greater or smaller degree as their time and circumstances permit. Although these contributions are made in a spirit of the responsibility which the Society has to the public, it can be a very and enjoyable experience.

Newcomers to Inglewood, whether with previous dramatic experience or not, are asked to get in touch by phone with either Mary Gyde, 3025 or Terry Dombroski 645, if they are interested in joining the Society

The Society gratefully acknowledges assistance from the following:
Inglewood Branch, Co., Valley's B - Central
J. E. Thompson, Inc., Mr. & Mrs. G. Anderson, 1145
Inglewood, Calif. 90701, Inglewood, Calif. 90701
Inglewood and Inglewood - a member of the Society

THE CREEPER

by Pauline Macaulay

CAST

(in order of appearance)

Holmes, the manservant	Gavin McLaggan
Maurice	Terry Dombroski
Edward Kimberley	David Ertel
Michel	Ben Corney
Man in a Raincoat	John Smith

* * * * *

SCENES

Act 1

Scene 1	Late afternoon
Scene 2	2a.m., the following morning

Act 2

Scene 1	Morning, some weeks later
Scene 2	Later, the same afternoon

Act 3

Scene 1	Midday, about 10 days later
Scene 2	The evening of the same day

* * * * *

Time - the present

There will be an interval of 15 minutes between Acts 1 and 2 during which coffee will be available.

PRODUCTION

Front of House	Theresa Dombroski & members
Set Design & Decor	Maty Bookman
Costumes	Val Hitchcock - Ann Corney
Set Construction	Darcy Harrison
Properties	Heather Dombroski, Carolyn Rowley
Lighting	Enid Codd
Sound	Ann Corney
Make-up	Noel Hoskins, Val Hitchcock
Photographs	Stan Long
Posters	Barry Bookman
Billboard	Loris Drake
Publicity	Joan Ertel
Prompt	Doreen Long
Stage Manager	Verna Prankerd

* * * * *

The Society gratefully acknowledges assistance from the following:
Brougham Street Trading Co., Julian's Electrical, J.K. Hammonds Ltd., Mr & Mrs C. Ludeman, Plough In Mart, Colin Saite (Matai Wines), Noel Drake, Furnishers and friends & members of the Society.

* * * * *

Produced by Heather Harrison