

Lettice and Lovage

By Peter Shaffer
Directed by Peter Meikle
Scheduled on stage at
TET Cue Theatre from
26th March to 6th April
2008

Lettice Douffet, an expert on medieval cuisine and weaponry, is a tour guide of Fustian House, the most boring stately home in Britain—until she begins to embellish her tours, which become more interesting as they stray further from the facts. Charlotte Schoen, sent by the Preservation Trust to investigate, is not amused and fires her. But Charlotte's passion for history draws her to Lettice's romantic world-view and the two women forge an unlikely friendship in the face of their dreary modern lives. This charming and hilarious British comedy won two 1990 Tony awards. "Lettice and Lovage" requires a varied cast. "Irresistibly funny, Peter Shaffer's brilliant comedy is one of the sharpest, wittiest and most elegant plays of the last century. "

AUDITIONS for this entertaining comedy will be held at TET Cue Theatre on Monday 10th December 2007 from 7.00pm.

THE LION, THE WITCH AND THE WARDROBE

21st November to 2nd December 2007

By C.S. Lewis
As dramatised by Adrian Mitchell
Directed by Jim Barr

You are about to enter the magical land of Narnia, the land behind the wardrobe door where animals talk, trees can walk, a white witch covers the landscape with snow and bewitches you with Turkish Delight, and where a mighty lion rescues you whenever you get into trouble. C.S. Lewis' tale of Narnia is loved by children and adults the world over and now comes to vibrant life on the stage at TET Cue Theatre in Adrian Mitchell's musical adaptation as directed by Jim Barr. Just open the door. You'll never believe what you'll find.

This performance is the culmination of many weeks experience.

It began when Jim, with the help of Gabrielle, Nicola, Julie and Trish ran four weekend workshops. Over 100 young people from North and Central Taranaki attended. The aim was to give them an idea of theatre and to see what potential they had as performers. Many, though not all, are in this production.

We wish to thank parents and others who have provided transport for the cast and assisted backstage in one of Cue's biggest shows.

We hope that all have enjoyed the experience of being in a production at Cue Theatre.

ALSO THANKS TO:

Macfarlanes Caffe ♣ Taranaki Signs
Theatre Lamp & Lighting
Plancopy ♣ Small Brothers
Tried & True ♣ Inglewood Shoprite
